

Numbering Our Days

We find ourselves echoing Moses' prayer: "So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom" (Ps 90:12). We have four more Wednesday night prayer meetings and four more Lord's Days with our beloved church here in Antofagasta! There are many things to do, and we don't want to miss out on anything because we're "looking past" them to our next steps.

This past month Bekah celebrated a birthday and Mark took a trip to Alto Hospicio for a pastors' meeting. We have been cared for and loved by our church family here, and have enjoyed many opportunities to share with them in their lives. The church is planning a farewell lunch for us, and individual families have been inviting us over. Their kindness is overwhelming. We rejoice in remembering how we have seen God work in their lives over the past seven and a half years.

Lord willing, we will leave Antofagasta on November 10 to begin our journey north. We continue to work through the millions of little details for the upcoming move. We trust God to provide for us and we thank him for the pointed reminders to hold our things with a loose hand. We thank God for your partnership in the gospel and we appreciate your continued prayers.

Thank God with us:

- For his grace in safe travels and ministry.
- For his grace in our church's growth together as we work to make disciples of Jesus Christ.
- For his grace in the love our church family here in Antofagasta has shown us.

Pray to God with us:

- For his grace in our church's growth.
- For his grace in physical, emotional, and spiritual strength in the coming month.
- For his grace in implementing our transition from Antofagasta to Massachusetts.
